

University of Pittsburgh

English Language Institute

Introductions

Ryan Golder

Program Manager

elipitt@pitt.edu

Dr. Dawn E. McCormick

ELI Director

mccormic@pitt.edu

English Language Institute (ELI) Background

- Established in 1964; among the oldest English language programs in the US
- Accredited by the Commission on English Language Accreditation (CEA)
- Member of English language program and international education communities

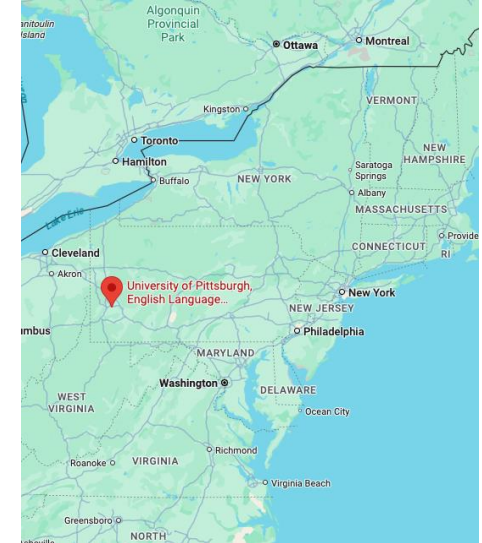

ELI Services

At the English Language Institute (ELI), we teach English as an additional language to equip and empower people to achieve their personal, professional and academic goals.

We deliver instruction to individuals, organizations, government agencies, and companies across the world through our intensive English program, Professional and Academic English Program, and custom programs.

ELI Highlights

- High-quality English classes
- Extracurricular activities
- Dedicated and professional staff and faculty
- Access to University of Pittsburgh resources
- Pittsburgh – parks, sports, museums, and more!

Source: Google Maps

ELI Activities

- Provide opportunities to use English outside of the classroom:
 - ELI planned activities
 - University events and activities
 - University clubs
 - Local volunteer opportunities
 - Local events and activities

Intensive English Program (IEP)

- IEP sessions begin three times a year: August/September, January, May
- Each session is 13 weeks, 20 hours per week
- Classes meet Monday/Tuesday/Wednesday/Thursday
- Classes in Speaking, Listening, Reading, Writing, and Grammar
- Full-time students: 20 class hours per week
- I-20s issued by the ELI for full-time language study
- Multiple levels of proficiency (availability depends on enrollments)
- Placement test used to assign students to levels
- Admission to the ELI does not include admission to a degree program at the University of Pittsburgh.

IEP Continued

- Housing: Students can arrange housing with:
 - Local homestay organizations
 - Nearby apartments
 - Student residence hall in Downtown Pittsburgh
 - University of Pittsburgh Housing (May – August only)
- Tuition and Fees for AY27
 - Full-time $6640
 - Part-time (per class) $1328
 - University fees $605 (AY27)

Professional and Academic English Program (PAEP)

- Summer-only program, June - July
- 6 weeks, 20 class hours per week
- Classes Monday/Tuesday/Wednesday/Thursday
- I-20s issued for language study by the ELI

Custom Programs

The ELI is able to create custom programs:

- American English and Culture
- English as an Additional Language Teacher Training
- English and content areas – examples from past programs include:
 - Bioethics
 - Medicine
 - Football
 - Law
 - First Responders

University Fees and IDs

- Free City of Pittsburgh bus pass
- Access to computer labs, software, and tech support
- Access to University of Pittsburgh gyms
- Access to Pitt's Student Health Services
- Access to the University Library System
- Free admission to many of Pittsburgh's popular museums (Fall and Spring)

Source: University of Pittsburgh Communications and Marketing

University of Pittsburgh®

English Language Institute

eli.pitt.edu